Small Firms Services Ltd Registration Form Notes – LONDON ADDRESS

Companies offering mailing addresses in the UK have to be registered and operate under the Money Laundering Act 2007. Our London office is also regulated by The London Local Authorities Act 2007 Section 75.

Please read the following notes regarding filling in the form:

- 1 If you are a private individual please ignore section one.
- 2 If you are a sole trader fill in the relevant parts of section one and all of the section two.
- 3 If you are a limited company fill in all of section one and section two.
- 4 If you are a limited company we need section two completed by one director of the company and any beneficial owner owning 25% or more of the shares should be detailed here. We need personal identity and address documents for the director entered in this section and all beneficial owners of 25% or more of the shares.
- 5 In order to comply with the above acts we require copies of documents that prove personal identity and address for the main contact person and all beneficial owners before we can forward mail to you. If you are a limited company you should also forward a copy of your Certificate of Incorporation.
- 6 For overseas customers it is a requirement under the London Local Authorities Act 2007 Section 75 that you provide original or notarised copy documents for the main contact person. If you do not want to post your original documents please visit a local solicitor or notary public and ask them to produce certified copies of your original documents. These should be 'certified as a true copy of the original'. The solicitor or notary should sign, date, and stamp the document with their address.
- 7 Where identification documents are not provided in a legible format using the standard English alphabet we ask that a sworn translation of the document is also certified by a solicitor or notary public.
- 8 If your company name or business activity implies involvement in finance, investment, banking or similar activities we will expect you to be regulated and registered by the FCA (Financial Conduct Authority) in the UK and will need proof of the company's registration.
